The Kansas City Chapter of Safari Club International is one of the largest and most active chapters of the International organization. Each year, when we hold our annual hunter's convention banquet and auction, the Hunter's Expo, we rely on the generous contributions of our supporters. These contributions, whether they are in the form of items or cash, help to raise needed funds to carry on our local and international interests in conservation and the preservation of hunting for future generations. On behalf of KC-SCI, thank you for your support.
